RESPONSE

In response to the September 13, 1995, Office action, please further consider the subject application in light of the following:

REMARKS

The September 13, 1995, Office action required restriction to one of two groups of claims. Group I included Claims 1 to 59 covering a container with a plurality of materials. Group II consisted of Claims 60 to 138, and related to a method for molding a container. Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection.

Initially, as required by the rules of practice, Applicant selects Group II, Claims 60 to 138, for further prosecution. They do notwithstanding the following traversal of the restriction requirement.

As the claims and the specification in the subject application indicate, Applicant's invention involves a single inventive concept. The concept concerns the making of containers incorporating post-consumer recycled plastic.

Since all the claims involve the same inventive concept, examining them all in a single application would appear warranted. Furthermore, it would not appear to induce undue additional work or burden on the Patent and Trademark Office to do so. Accordingly, Applicant
